

Strikes and War: Consolidating the New Deal Order

1. Consolidating and extending the New Deal Order freedom through security
 - (a) Fordism: Freedom through security for the working man
Henry Ford
The five dollar day
2. Labor makes itself a new deal
 - (a) Why did labor succeed in 1936?
Frank Murphy
 - (b) New Leadership: the CIO
John Lewis
CIO (Congress of Industrial Organizations)
 - (c) The Union of Auto Workers and the Big Three Car Companies
Ford Service Department
 - i. The sit-down strike
“A Plague on both your Houses”
3. The War of Economies
 - (a) Mobilization
War Production Board
 - i. Winning the war through manufacturing
Sherman Tank
 - (b) Women at Work
Rosie the Riveter
 - (c) The Bracero Program (1942-1964)
 - (d) Businessmen in charge: the end of the New Deal dollar a year men
 - (e) The wartime economy
4. Did watching Nazis make America less racist?
 - (a) Japanese Internment
Manzanar
 - (b) The End of Reform